

Hello and Welcome to the 2019 WORLD FILM FAIR

Join us from NOVEMBER 11th to 16th in LA next to the American Film Market

World Film Fair is the perfect community for all independent filmmakers.

We offer the opportunity to participate in the International film exchange program.

Join our community of over 20,000 filmmakers from 45 countries showcased throughout 350 film festivals globally.

In this year's program we are celebrating by screening the top 100 films from the 30 Best World Film Festivals complete with Red Carpet Awards Ceremony, workshops and exciting new partnership programs with the film exchange programs of World Film Presentation and GlobalFilmWay plus news on our Exclusive World Film Digital TV Channels.

World Film Fair is an ongoing global showcase where you can become a VIP and gain your exclusive access pass which allows you and a friend to attend all World Film Fair programs for one year starting with our 2019 Red Carpet awards ceremony, workshops and screenings of 100 multi award winning world films.

Also there's the added benefit of continually increasing your network within the Global Film Industry, and connect with our projects and support programs which including access to the world film exchange between film festivals, which offer cinematic distribution held in multiple locations and venues around the world.

Such opportunities allow you to mix with distributors, production companies, film buyers, and investors.

We are also proud to announce our Exclusive World Film Digital TV Channels who have created a network to help filmmakers globally attain distribution with authentic world reach.

They have created unique dedicated channels in multiple languages, with subtitle services, interactive audience voting and sharing technology for peoples choice awards. Be the first to have your movie shown on their network in the 2020 release as they help you take your talent to the world starting with their 14 million subscribers.

Film makers showcased here automatically become part of the Exclusive World Film Digital TV Channels alumni and benefits program.

Plus there's more! We have opened a gateway to the Chinese Market. This has been achieved with a single aggregator who links the East and West film industry through the globalfilmway.com

This enables Chinese filmmakers to enter the Western Film industry market by submitting Chinese films to the Festivals in Europe and the US, and in return Western and American filmmakers can enter the Chinese market.

There will be more and more Chinese festivals added to our platforms every day.

Curious to learn more about how you can grow your film career? Come join us at the Promenade Playhouse, 1404 3rd Street Promenade, Santa Monica, Los Angeles California 90401

Our Day programme runs
